UD PRE-SENIOR PLANNING DAY WILL HELP HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS PREPARE FOR COLLEGE

DAYTON, Ohio, March 29, 1989--The University of Dayton will hold a free Pre-Senior College Planning Day on Sunday, April 9 for high school sophomores, juniors and their parents.

The program, to be held from noon to 4 p.m. in the Kennedy Union on campus, will focus on selecting a college or university as well as a major field of study. Sessions will be offered on a wide variety of academic choices, including business, education, engineering and engineering technology, humanities, performing and visual arts, natural and physical science, and social and behavioral science. In another session, a panel of college students will discuss their own personal and academic adjustments to college. An overview of the financial aid process will also be offered.

"The program will help guide and educate pre-seniors and their parents toward more effective college planning," said Kathleen Kehner, associate director of admission at UD. "We want to help them make the right choice in selecting a college." The first College Planning Day was held last year and drew approximately 300 students and parents.

Participants are invited to attend the 10 a.m. Mass in the Immaculate Conception Chapel on campus, and tours of the UD campus will be offered at 4 p.m.
